

SAP ACE 2007 K Raheja Corp Private Limited was awarded
"Best Construction & Real Estate Sector Implementation"
- Midsize Enterprises Category

Monday, 27 August 2007, at the Hyatt Regency, New Delhi .

SAP ACE 2007 is the second edition of its annual awards in recognition of customer excellence. A total of 38 winners were felicitated in the awards ceremony. The SAP ACE awards 2007 received enthusiastic nominations from a large number of organizations – large, medium and small.

Speaking on the occasion, Ranjan Das, president and CEO, SAP Indian Subcontinent said: "We are very happy with the enthusiasm of our customers in showcasing their business transformation success, through the SAP ACE process. Highlighting the increasing penetration of IT usage in companies of all sizes in the Sub Continent, we received nominations from organizations across all segments and industries."

He said that it was a very tough job for the jury to select the winning projects from a list of exceptional nominations, showcasing that the best run Indian Businesses run SAP.

K Raheja Corp Private Limited was awarded for Customer Excellence in the Best Construction & Real Estate Sector Implementation - Midsize Enterprises Category.

This year's nominations received a rich participation from companies of all sizes – with revenues ranging from less than Rs. 20 crores to the largest companies in the Indian Sub continent. Corporate's across diverse businesses like garments, retail, telecom, construction, consumer goods, chemicals, pharmaceuticals, steel and oil producers, energy, utilities, IT/ITES enthusiastically participated in SAP ACE. The nominations also include a rich spread of projects across diverse verticals like HR, SCM, NetWeaver and BI implementations, and managing growth across many diversified businesses.

The SAP ACE awards span across three categories: overall, midsize and small enterprises category. The evaluation process comprised four stages including scrutiny of the nomination form, short listing via interviews, onsite review and final assessment by the jury after a detailed panel discussion.

The expert members of the jury comprised R. Subramanian, managing director, Subhiksha Trading Services, V.M. Venkatarajan, former IT Advisor – TVS Group, T. Ravindran, general manager, ONGC, Amit Mukherjee, vice president and Group CIO, RPG Group, Krishna Sundar, chairperson - ERP Center and CFC, IIM-Bangalore and Ranjan Das.